FOREWORD

Upon presentation of this, the June 1939 issue of the Triangle, the Staff wishes to extend its sincere thanks to both faculty and student body for their co-operation toward making this book a success. May it serve its purpose faithfully as a reminder of the pleasant years spent within the walls of Cass and the many warm friendships formed in this period of time.

IN MEMORIAM

---

MR. BYRON J. CHAPEL

"We all do fade as a leaf." Isaiah, 64:6.

During the years in which Mr. Chapel was a member of our faculty, his influence was constantly exerted for all that is best in school and beyond. His legacy to us is the inspiring memory of thorough scholarship, liberal culture, and inexhaustible sympathy. His many words of encouragement and kindness will never be forgotten by the students who had the privilege of studying under him.

---

MISS ADA L. WHITNEY

"I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live." St. John, 11:25.

On April 20, 1939, the Art Department of Cass, as well as the entire student body and faculty, unexpectedly lost one of its most valuable and loved instructors, Miss Ada L. Whitney. No eulogy written could attain the expression of admiration that was felt for Miss Whitney. As both teacher and friend, her memory will live forever in the lives of many, and under her past inspirational guidance, our young artists will continue to prepare places for themselves in the dynamic world of art.

DEDICATION

Thirty years, thirty long, well-spent years under the broad roof, surrounded by the majestic walls of Cass Tech, have come to a close upon the retirement of Clarence S. Cooke, Assistant Principal and organizer of night school activity. During these thirty years, students and faculty alike have known the guidance and consoling words of Mr. Cooke.

To Mr. Cooke we dedicate this book. May the memories of his many years at Cass be as pleasant to him as is the inspiration derived by those who have worked and thought with him.

AUDITORIUM

Many successful programs, echoing and re-echoing with school spirit, have been held in this great hall. All Detroit is acquainted with the Cass Auditorium as a center of neighborhood activity.

LUNCH ROOM

Thousands of Cassites eagerly travel to this great room each day and while enjoying wholesome food can hear the pleasant tones of conversation, carried from tables near and far, as new ideas are being voiced and events planned in this sociable hall of Cass.

ENGINE ROOM

This cut illustrates a scene from one of those little known, yet vital parts of the school, which contribute much toward the happiness and wellbeing of the students by maintaining a regular and even temperature throughout all the numerous rooms of our building.

On May 17, school was over at twelve o'clock for all seniors. On cars, busses, and bicycles, they advanced upon Belle Isle for the Senior Picnic. Immediately upon arriving, they headed for the pavilion which sheltered the refreshments. After indulging in a delicious repast of hot dogs, ginger ale, ice cream, and potato chips, the seniors scattered to amuse themselves as best their pocket-books would allow. Some rode horses, some bicycled, some "canoeled," some played ball, some were spectators, and others just walked.

"WHEN WE WERE FRESHIES"

by Virginia F.

Hohl -

ONE GIRL'S DIARY

JANUARY

- 30 A new term commences with twenty-minute periods. (We just love twenty-minute periods.) Someone tried to sell a freshie an elevator ticket, but freshies are smarter this year than when I came.
- 31 Homework assigned! The Cass teachers don't believe in letting "tempus fugit."

FEBRUARY

- 1 Yeah for us seniors—we've got 91 days to go.
- 2 The sale of the Outlook closed the first week of the first term of '39. (School regulations were included for freshies.) Good old Green and White defeated U. of D. High in basketball.
- 10 Friday; end of second week and surprise! Boys' basketball team won from Central, 21 to 17. We also ran all over Miller in the indoor track meet, 65-25. (What a swell beginning for a "weekend".)
- 13 Home Economics Club held a hearty (Valentine) initiation party today.
- 14 "Washington at Yorktown", was presented by members of the radio dramatics class over CKLW. Remember the Valentines?
- 16 By now the Triangle staff has been selected and the big job is begun.
- 17 Friday. What a grand finale: Boys' basketball team was victorious over Redford, 25-18, and the indoor track team came running in 61 to 29 against Northern. Girl Reserves Conference at Bay City is to be attended by our representatives.
- 21 The Cass lassies lost to Southwestern in basketball today.
- 22 Student Council sponsored a very successful George Washington's birthday dance. Did you see those jitterbugs??

- 23 The first meeting of Senior Representatives. All the clubs have their term programs pretty well in order by now. Hi-Y held their formal induction for eight new members. (Initiation in our language.)
- 24 Our basketball dribblers lost to Cooley today, 27-18. The Biology Club held their initiation party in the club-room.

- 28 This is about the time when teachers begin telling us about assignments which must be in by Friday if we expect a satisfactory mark a week hence.
- 29 Our chances of having a Prom on a boat this year are about as certain as this date.

MARCH

- 3 Fridays are always busy—especially today. (Last chance for a better mark.) "There's something about his buttons, how they shine, shine, shine!" Max Parris was made Cadet Colonel of the entire R. O. T. C. unit of the city. Our losing streak is still streaking—the boys lost to Western, 25-18. We took third place in outdoor track in the East League.
- 4 Ken Stoddard and Roy Gibson sawed away first and second prizes for Cass in the wood-sawing contest at the state convention of the F. C. A. (Incidentally, I wonder if they do any practicing at night.) Ernest Keefer took first prize in welding and Fred Reiss, second.
- 6 Girls tied Commerce in basketball, 23-23. A tie is better than defeat, eh what?)
- 7 First card marking. Students discover their personality technique hasn't been satisfactory, and they'll have to study after all!
- 8 Camera Club entertained the Student Council with movies of everyday activities of Cassites.
- 10 Whew! It was a tough fight, Ma; I'm glad I won. In basketball, the girls defeated Mackenzie, 26-24! But the boys lost to Northwestern, 21-13. Tsk! Tsk! And it was the last game of the season too! So we turn the page on another week.
- 13 Ollen Peters won the school Civitan Essay Contest.
- 16 Girls' League sponsored semi-annual "All Girls' Party."
- 17 Star Delta Club visited Connor's Creek Power Plant. The Aero Club visited Federal Weather Bureau. Now they know how the weather is made. St. Patrick's Day and no mass meeting! But (there's always a but) "The Locked Door," a thrilling murder play presented by the Federal Theater Players, was enjoyed after school. We still wonder if the victim was shot, stabbed, poisoned, or if he committed suicide.
- 18 Radio Dramatics class presented the "Mystery of the Marie Celeste" over WJR. The City-Wide Girl Reserves and Hi-Y meeting was held at Central branch of YWCA. I never did see so many Hi-Y boys. (There are never enough of them at a Girl Reserves party.)
- 20 Home Economics Club attended a fashion show sponsored by Kern's.
- 21 First day of Spring. Not a single pair of red flannels can be found in Cass now, except John Navin's.
- 24 Another big Friday! A big crowd came to see the boys vs. girls basketball game. (Remember how "cute" the boys looked in their skirts and makeup.) The newly organized "Wapika Club" (a printing club to you, Smarty!) held its first meeting under the first president, George (Washington) Metcalf.

APRIL

- 2 I didn't write anything for yesterday, as you wouldn't have believed me anyway.
- 4 For goodness sakes! Second card marking has sneaked from behind! Some of us have had and some of us are about to have midsemester exams. Spring vacation is nigh, and I and others can hardly wait.
- 5 Richard Naumann won the state oratorical contest sponsored by The American Legion at East Lansing.

Elaine Childs won first place honors in the sub-district oratory contest sponsored by the Michigan Forensic Association.

- 6 Whee—Spring vacation begins today after our last class. But (there's that "but" again) we had a mass meeting, whose purpose haunted us. Bill Herivel presented the manuscript of an original school song (words AND music, too!) to the school in care of Mr. Allen. The students were so impressed that they surprised the faculty by being well-mannered.

"The sap is flowing in the trees,
The birds are happy, so are the bees;
Now I can say I'm happy too
'Cause vacation's here. Woo Woo!"

—Speare Shakes.

- 16 Last day of Vacation—it was too short!
- 17 This is going to slay you—nobody did the homework they were supposed to do, and they just couldn't say they didn't have enough time.
- 18 It rained and all the pretty curls came out!—just because Club pictures were taken for the Triangle and all the girls wanted to look pretty.
- 19 Mr. Chapel died in his home.
- 20 Miss Ada L. Whitney died in Henry Ford Hospital.

Mass meeting for girls and women teachers acknowledging the Twentieth Anniversary of admission of girls to Cass. Since their admission, necktie sales have gone up.

- 25 Sojourners Cup won for the third consecutive year at the Naval Armory and therefore becomes the permanent possession of Cass.
- 27 First spring golf match was snatched by Highland Park. They beat us in tennis, too. May they go without the blessing of Allah!

MAY

- 1 We start another week with the Senior Representatives pestering us to turn our money in for Triangles and we keep pestering peace-loving students, teacher and friends to buy them.

- 2 Senior play tickets and lessons in salesmanship were received today.
- 4 Chemistry Club and their friends had a splashing good time in the pool today.
- 5 We played baseball with Southeastern today, but our generous nature got the best of us. The Girl Reserves, assisted by the Hi-Y boys, gave a Spring Swing Dance. Yes, my friends, the square dance is now definitely out.
- 9 Third card making. Ouch! And it's not lumbago either.
- 10 It looked like the "morning after" the night before, judging from the worried expressions on student's faces.
- 12 Commerce met Cass on the diamond. We want to know who introduced them and also who got the diamond. Biology Club visited Difcoe Labs.
- 16 Girl Reserves held Senior Farewell Ceremonial. "Should auld acquaintance be forgot—" I can't go on, sniff, sniff.
- 17 Senior picnic held at Belle Isle. Many students know how deep the canal is now. Some even went down to see the "three little fishies, and the mama fishie, too." I forgot to ask whether they got seafood for refreshments.
- 19 We lower our voices to tell you that the Aero Club held their initiation last night as was evidenced by the ghastly faces of their new members.
- 24 Aero seniors and Science seniors have tug of war across lagoon at Belle Isle.
- 26 First performance of Senior Play—"Ceiling Zero."

JUNE

- 1 "Oh me, oh my, I'll get there by and by", is the song of all Seniors.
- 3 The Masquers' Club picnicked at Belle Isle. The ants also attended this social affair, en masse.
- 7 What we Seniors were doing late into the wee hours of the morning,—Ugh!—"even my 'worstest' enemy shouldn't have it." All because tomorrow—
- 8 Pre-Finals.
- 9 A continuation of yesterday's dose. All I can do now is pray.
- 16 Fourth Card marking. Now we know.
- 18 The midnight oil burns again for those who still don't know. Senior Girl Reserves party at Miss Moeller's home.
- 19 Quizz. Another sleepless night. (No wonder we get gray hairs).
- 20 Quizz and more Quizz. No wonder I'm dizzy.
- 21 Commencement. I looked forward to this day with joy, to find that it also brings a lump in my throat. Adieu, may we meet again.

Air Views of Cass: Upon suggestion of a picture from the air portraying Cass and the surrounding vicinity, an effort was made to realize this vision. With the co-operation of Andy Dereck, student flyer, and Ernest Marjoram, photographer, shown in the lower center picture, views were taken from 800 feet on the morning of May 11, developed, enlarged fully a hundred times, and finally engraved and printed. Notice the beauty added by the great prominence of the numerous windows, also the familiar territory around the school. On a rear view a cloud blots out a central portion of the picture. Lower Left: A scene from aero—Student working on plane's wing with tempered wire. Right: A self-explanatory view from woodshop.

HOMEWARD BOUND

This, an everyday scene with which we are all familiar, has closed many days of our school lives. Before we depart, let us scan our high school years, see what we have accomplished, and plan to do a better job as we traverse the bumpy roads of life.
